

1881 he was the nominee of the Greenback Labor party. The Democrats endorsed his nomination and he was elected. In 1883 he was nominated and he was elected. The Greenbacks were re-nominated and he was again elected. He ran against the Democratic candidate as he had been two years before over the Republican nominee. He has been a year's man with the Republicans. The indications are that he will be a handsome majority, and thus secure the defeat of Burnside.

SUBSTANTIAL AID FROM WORKINGMEN.
LETTERS AND FUNDS RECEIVED BY THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

The National Committee has reason to be satisfied with the progress of the Presidential campaign. There is no abatement in popular enthusiasm and interest. The National ticket grows in favor with the people and at the close of each week the canvass there are substantial gains to be counted. The remarkable feature of the present campaign is the deep and widespread interest of working people in the success of the Republican party. They seem to understand the attitude of the parties on the tariff question clearly and to realize that the defeat of the Republican party at the polls would be a serious disaster to the cause of labor.

"I have never known in all my political career, said one of the committee men, 'a time when the people were so interested in politics. The National Committee never before received such proofs of the hold that the Republican party has on the hearts of the people as it does every day of this campaign. Every voter feels a personal responsibility in the welfare of the party. We are receiving each week hundreds of letters from working people, containing not only expressions of loyalty and sympathy, but substantial contributions to the campaign funds. These letters are used by us to meet and exceed contributions ranging in value from fifty cents to $20. From such indications we judge that there is a depth and strength to the Republican sentiment in this country which insures victory at the polls in November."

Below are some of the letters referred to:

LYNN, Mass., Aug. 21, 1884.
Chairman Republican Committee, 242 Fifth-ave.

DEAR SIR:—I am a working man of 45 years of age and want to do my part in the benefit of protection and to do our share toward preserving it by keeping the Republicans in power. Enclosed find $10.

Yours, etc., W. R. T.

The superintended of a large factory writes from Fall River:

We are a very hundred men and they will all vote for the Republican ticket with a few exceptions. Two-thirds of them have been Democrats. Last night a Republican Club was formed. A subscription to the National campaign fund was voted. Each man presented $50. Total amount received $1,000. Please acknowledge the receipt.

J. B. S., Lowell, Mass.—I want to do something for the grand old party during the summer. My circumstances will not permit me to make a large subscription; I send you my note, $1.

A Springfield Workman—I want Blaine elected and I send you $10 to help him. But much, but it is all I can give.

C. C. Glazier is one of the packing-houses here. We organized a Blaine and Logan Club last night. Instead of ordering up an ordinary dinner, we sent a box of oranges and lemonade, the balance of the money to you. To me, you have a safe life. Indeed that sum $10.

C. H. Basile, Wisc.—I want to give something to the Republican cause. I send you $1.

A Working Girl—I work at a garment factory here all for Blaine. I send the money to you.

A Working Girl—I read the paper every day and know the world will be better if the Democrats to party is successful. I can't vote, but I send you $1. It may help out a little.

P. E.—My town-mate, K. ———, also sends a dollar.

INDEPENDENT IRISHMEN AT WORK.

GROWTH OF THIS MOVEMENT IN FAVOR OF BLAINE AND LOGAN.

The Irish and American flags floated outside the hall No. 105 East Fourteenth-st yesterday. Inside there was a mass meeting of delegates of the Irish-American Independent from all districts of the city. Ed and J. R. (we presume), and Bernard J. Kelly acted as secretary. The hall is a spacious one, handsomely decorated, and when the chairman announced that they had secured it until the end of the campaign there was warm applause. The chairman read a circular and James, Coleman, chairman, Eugene Kelly, treasurer, and John O'Byrne, secretary, with several other Irish names attached, concluding his press-meet at a mad meeting in the Academy of Music in support of the Democratic candidates. From the circular it was meant to show that this press-meeting would be an Irish one.

"It is a healthy sign of our movement on behalf of Blaine and Logan," said the chairman, "to find the Democratic party giving to the special trouble of gathering up a special circular for the Irishmen of this city to support the Democratic nominees. Let the so-called Easterners, the hall is spacious one, handsomely decorated, and when the chairman announced that they had secured it until the end of the campaign there was warm applause. From the circular it was meant to show that this press-meeting would be an Irish one.

A. H. Ford said that the reports from all the central districts showed the organization for Blaine and Logan to be in a flourishing condition. F. Metcalf also said that the 1st Assembly District was enthusiastic for Blaine and Logan. P. J. Hughes said that good work was being done, and Mr. Eveleth had got forty more to the hall for the Irish-Americans. A. J. Adams said that the 2d Assembly District had three clubs in the 10th Assembly District, and their members more than 200 men. (Appalled.) M. McManus for the 14th District made an excellent report. Patrick J. L. O'Brien, who is a leader to the Irish in New York, said that he was doing a great deal for the Irish, but the working-class never got in, so he left. The 14th Assembly District said that the military were about organizing a powerful legion. Th. J. O'Boyle, a man, they would give some account of themselves as Cleveland would soon do.

A motion that an address be issued to all Irish-Americans showing the character and object of those who were continuing to look out for the welfare of Blaine in the name of Ireland, and on behalf of the Democratic cause, was referred to the Executive Committee.

THE POLES UNITED FOR BLAINE.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS APPROVING THE POLICY OF PROTECTION.

There was a large attendance at the special meeting of the Polish and Lithuanian Political Association at No. 103 Second-st yesterday as a technical and genuine enthusiasm prevailed. The object of the meeting was to take action upon the coming Polish Blaine and Logan resolution. The last name was criticized for making the country look bad for the coming election. All the points were well made and the discussion was carried on with great interest.

Mr. F. J. Hayes, president of the Polish and Lithuanian Political Association, said that the resolution was adopted by a large majority, and that he and his associates were fully satisfied with the result.
